ARGENTINA 2026 FIPFA WORLD CUP

It's been 6 years we've been waiting for it, the FIPFA World Cup is back and it's in Australia, near Sydney, that France will defend its title won in 2017 in the USA. On the occasion of this new Australian edition, YOOLA mobilizes once again to make you live the event.

For this new edition on a dream destination, Sydney, YOOLA agency proposes you a modular package to build your stay according to your desires and to mix your passion for the wheelchair soccer and the tourism to discover Australia.

TRAVEL WITH YOOLA

Passionate about sports, it is with joy and emotion that we are happy to return to the Wheelchair Soccer World Cup, since 2011, we accompany the International Federation and the actors of this sport with strong social impact. For this new edition of the event, we mobilize our team to allow all the supporters of the world to go to Australia to follow the competition. Being aware of the distance and the difficulties linked to this great journey, we put our know-how at the service of the whole FIPFA family to make this World Cup a success on and off the field.

GUARANTEE AND SECURITY

Traveling with the support of a travel agency is essential in the current context. The agency is your best partner to travel serenely.

GUARANTEE OF DEPOSITED FUNDS

The travel agency has a financial guarantee to secure the funds deposited by its customers. Unlike online sales sites such as AirBnB, travel agencies protect and accompany their customers before, during and after the trip. In case of border closure or cancellation of the games, we guarantee the refund to our customers.

SECURITY

Throughout your stay, we assist you and in case of problems during your stay, all our travelers are covered by our repatriation assistance insurance. An obligation from now on for the travelers going to Japan, in addition to this insurance, we propose to our travelers multiple insurances of which a very complete multirisk insurance.

FORMALITÉS

To access the Australian territory, each spectator will have to use the Australian ETA app to apply for an electronic visa.

THE DESTINATION: BUENOS AIRES ARGENTINE

This new edition will offer players, companions, and supporters the opportunity to experience an exceptional event in one of the most iconic football nations in the world. Between the warm hospitality of the Argentine people, their passion for sport, and the unique atmosphere that can be felt throughout the country, all the ingredients will be in place for an unforgettable World Cup.

A vibrant and cosmopolitan capital, Buenos Aires captivates visitors with its unique blend of European elegance and Latin American energy. Often referred to as the "Paris of South America," the city is home to iconic neighborhoods, lively squares, beautiful parks, and a rich cultural heritage waiting to be explored.

In recent years, Buenos Aires has made significant progress in improving accessibility. Many tourist attractions, public spaces, and transportation services are now adapted, allowing visitors to enjoy their stay with greater independence and comfort.

Argentina is a true football nation. Here, football is much more than a sport—it is a fundamental part of the country's culture and identity, bringing together people of all generations. Taking part in the FIPFA World Cup in Argentina means immersing yourself in a country where football is a genuine way of life.

Supporters will also have the opportunity to discover legendary stadiums that have shaped football history, relive the achievements of Argentina's greatest football icons, and experience the unrivaled atmosphere that surrounds sporting events throughout the country.
